

FRANCE

France doesn't need to be told what it's good at. Its pre-eminence in most matters of style has been a given for decades. But this is no time for resting on laurels: new blood is coursing through the country's couture, preserving the unrivalled reputation of its patisserie, putting the poetry back into fragrance creation and carving out new niches with vertical gardens

PHOTOGRAPHY: LUKE KIRWAN INTERIORS: BRIGIT HEGARTY

EDITOR: EMMA MOORE
 ILLUSTRATOR: EOIN RYAN
 WRITERS: JONATHAN BELL, NICK CLARKE,
 PAUL DAVIES, PEI-RU KEH, MARIE LE FORT,
 APPIA MICHAEL, AMY SERAFIN,
 ELLIE STATHAKI, HENRIETTA THOMPSON,
 TEO VAN DEN BROEKE

For credits and stockists, see Resources, page 166

18 – NEW COUTURE

26 – INDUSTRY MUSEUMS

13 – GLOVE LOVE

10 – 12 VERTICAL GARDENS

28 – KNIFE EDGE

33 – JEWEL CONTROL

08 – REGIONAL DESIGN

02 – 05 MAKING SCENTS

24 – INDUSTRY MUSEUMS

19 – SUGAR FIX

Photography assistant: Amy Currell. Interiors assistant: Alexis Forte